

COLLEGE STREET LITTLE ITALY TORONTO'S RENAISSANCE STRIP

EDITED BY DENIS DE KLERCK & CORRADO PAINA

TABLE OF CONTENTS

23	Introduction Joe Pantalone
25	The Renaissance Strip Denis De Klerck & Corrado Paina
43	19th-century Suburbia 20th-century Cool (or how to build a city street) Mark Fram
63	The Jewish Experience: From College to Cullij and Back Richard Menkis & Harold Troper
79	College Street - Little Italy: More than a Century of Toronto Italia Gabrielle Scardellato
107	Early Portuguese Settlement in Toronto's Little Italy Domingos Marques & Manuela Marujo
119	Traces Left Behind: The "Other" Communities of College Street Giuliana Colalillo
131	The Arts on College Street Beatriz Hausner
153	A NOTE OF THANKS

Denis De Klerck and Corrado Paina

A note of thanks

This book was born because of the creativity and passion of many individuals and their enduring love for the “renaissance strip.” It would never have seen the light of day without the mentoring and disciplined pragmatism of Joe Pantalone. He was a constant source of insight and ideas, but most of all he introduced us to real places, real stories, real people. We will always be grateful to Joe for being the engine of College Street’s renaissance strip, and for having accompanied us as we journeyed through this project.

We would also like to acknowledge the generosity of Barry Fenton, the president of Lanterra Developments, and thank him for his financial help and the many humorous meetings enlivened by his presence and his wit. The Mariano A. Elia Chair has believed in our project since the very beginning and we warmly thank Jana Viznmuller-Zocco for her amazing support and trust.

The project has also had a constant ally in the Gallery of Human Migration led by Rocco Maragna. The Gallery’s work in evaluating the impact of the transformational power of migration on Canadian society has been inspiring. Rocco, along with the other members of the fundraising committee (Mayor David Miller, Lenny Lombardi, Barry Fenton, Joe Pantalone, Nick Simone and Peter Aykroyd), has helped us with vision and wisdom.

Mayor David Miller has been a presence throughout the creation of the book, and we will be always grateful for it. This book was definitely begotten by the “year of creativity.”

There are also two people who must be recognized because their lives are intertwined with the life and the renaissance of College Street – Little Italy: Lenny Lombardi and Eugene Barone.

We would like to thank all of our sponsors for their financial and in-kind contributions, and in some cases, for their creative input: Lanterra Developments, Barry Fenton, Lenny Lombardi and CHIN, Little Italy BIA, Manuel DaCosta, Viana Roofing, Grace Meat Market, St. Helen’s Meat Packers Ltd., International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 353, Molson Canada, The Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Tony Natale, Associate broker, Ariston Realty Corp.,

Plazacorp Investments Ltd, Bruno Sinopoli, Mod Club Theatre, Toronto Economic Development Corporation, Alan Vihant, Concord Adex Development Corp., Wittington Properties Ltd, Danny Caranci, Joe Bonavota and Bar Italia, Long & McQuade Musical Instruments, Riviera Bakery, Sicilian Sidewalk Café, Dario Amara, Eugene & Noelle Barone, George Cominel & Ann Ball, Paul Mitchell & Bonita Brindley, Beate Bowron, David & Shirley Crombie, George Dark, Fiona Chapman & David Pond, Michael de Pencier, Richard Decter, Karen & Stephen Diamond, Theresa & Carmelo Didiano, Robert & Ellen Eisenberg, Tomas Fiore, Roger & Eryd Floyd, Augustino Forgiato, Richard Gilbert, Charles Gossage, Joe Centraco & Grace Buttno, Walter & Anne Harhay, Jodel Holdings, Robert & Mary Hunter, Anne Johnston, Michael Kainer, Jassie Khurana, Peter La Farciola, Jill Le Clair, Marcelle & Ralph Lean, Michael & Charlotte Lyons, Michele & Carmela Macarone, Bruno Marchese, Shinchiro Matsumoto, Judy Mathews, Eduardo & Fatima Meirinhos, Jose & Maria Melo, Michelle Carruthers, Maria Pantalone, Rose Pantalone, Andrew Paton, Richard Peddie, Giuseppe & Francesca Rauti, Marcelina Ponte & Robert Maxwell, Luigi & Gina Santino, Chen Savapak, Mary Sharpe, Chang Shic, Guiseppe Simonetta, M. Sinopoli, Sam Sniderman, Ronald Soskolne, Feodora Steppat, Vince & Rafraela Suppa, Elizabeth Teri, Maureen Whitehead, Neil Wright, Pamela & Edward Youngberg, Minhoo Roofing Co. Ltd., Il Gatto Nero, CIRC Radio Inc., Zeidler Partnership/Architects, Trastiti Bar Inc., Café Diplomatico & Restaurant, Bellavista Trattoria & Bar Ltd., Quality Meat Packers, LUNNA Local 183 Training & Rehabilitation Centre – Trust Fund Universal Workers Union Local 183, Toronto Professional Firefighters’ Association, DTV Commercial Services Ltd., Bellavista Trattoria & Bar Ltd., Lyric Pond Corporation, Greater Toronto Hotel Association, Malibu Harbourfront Inc., Toronto Construction Association, Landscupe Ontario Horticultural Trades Association, P.J. Clephan Ltd., CC Acquisition Corp, Wittington Properties Ltd., Lynn Friendly & Associates Inc., Janet Rosenberg & Associates Landscupe Architects Inc., Sam Kotzer Ltd., T/A Samko

Sales, Plaza Corp (Flect) Holdings Ltd, Viana Roofing & Sheet Metal Ltd., Page & Steele Management Services (1986) Ltd., the Mod Club Theatre, Pasqualino Solo Uomo Ltd., JM Limited Partnership with 102769 Ontario Limited as General Partner, Ariston Realty Corp., Labourers’ International Union of North America Local 506, Harri Pontarini Architects, Marshall Macklin Monaghan, Joe’s Barber Shop, Everlite Luggage Mfg Ltd., Woolfit’s, Mo Dixit & Associates Ltd., Toronto Convention & Visitors Association, Alan Littlewood Architect, Architecture Inc., Key Publishers Company Ltd., Goodman & Carr LLP Barristers and Solicitors; International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers L.U. 353, Graziani & Corazza Architects Inc., Sicilian Sidewalk Café Ltd., Regina Pizzeria & Trattoria, Stronco Designs, Stacey Electric Comp.

So many people have contributed to this book with pictures, with writings, with sympathy and kindness, that we run the risk of leaving someone out or identifying them vaguely because we have never known their last names. Our forgetfulness and lack of proper names have only served to remind us of our vivid life here in Little Italy and how easy it is to take it for granted. The following are just a few of the people that have made being here a richer experience.

Manuel and Margherita, Morris Jamal, Steve, Sasha, Oscar and Lucas Donald, Cosimo, Theresa, Alessandra, Gerard and Francesco Mannella, Carlo Basilioni, Vince Bruni, Caroline Christie, David Fraser, Michael Lo Tito, Umberto Manca, Anthony Mancini, Rosario Marchese, Frank Pasqualino, Angela and Pascal Petardi, Roy Pike, Rosa and Rocco Reale, Pierluigi Roi, Donato Santeramo, Lorenzo Vallecchi, Franco Valli, Pina and Filippo Zampino, Humberto Carvalho, the sweet Chinese busker playing in the morning at the northeast corner of College and Grace, Rocco, the Italian homeless guy singing old Italian songs at 5:00 a.m., Judith, Sai at Gatto Nero, Jamie at the Orbit Room, Ali, the eye of CHIN radio, Joe Anile, Martin, Victor, Beth, Davida and Elliot, Steve, Bruno Crescia, Hazel, Steve and Trundra, Erin, Adly Gawad, Mary Pickford, Yvonne, Carolina, Gianna, Andrew and Gia, Emilia, Olivia Chow, Francesco